DEDICATION

This yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Cosenza and Mrs. Westfall—two people who stood by us when noone else was showing us much support. They gave of their valuable time, pushed us when we needed to be pushed, yet they were always there with endless ideas and encouragement.

Thank you. We of the yearbook staff will never be able to express our gratitude for your help in producing this special book.

CLASS HISTORY

As we journey through these pages, we must remember where it all began. We were a group of about two hundred students, and we met for the first time in sixth grade. Little did we realize that we were to be the Class of '81. We drifted through junior high, anxiously awaiting our high school days.

When we arrived, our principal, Mr. Bohley, greeted us warmly. Study halls? What were they? We enjoyed Senior Privileges as freshmen, and English classes brought us outside to view the scenery.

Our sophomore year brought with it a few drastic changes. Our new principal, Mr. Crandall, began to change the scene. We were disappointed to find out we were only sophomores. Study halls were just that—study halls. We did have a say, though. We had government. Our class president was Bill Snyder, our vice president Maureen Bailly, treasurer Judy Card, and secretary Kathy Miller. We began the year in style with our world-famous bake sales. In November we had our infamous car wash which left its mark on more than a few cars. In May we experienced for the first time a Senior Field Day. Although we were young, we made a strong showing of second place.

With our junior year came many changes and responsibilities. We held elections again. Our new president was Mike Harrington, our vice president Maureen Bailly, treasurer Judy Card, and secretary Sue Gellert.

Our first big event was our Ring Banquet, held February 15, 1980, at The Pond. We had a good number of people in attendance—"physically". Soon after we began planning for our one and only Junior Prom. We had many decisions to make—the most difficult being the theme. Miss Williams, our new class advisor, had many ideas none of which pleased everyone. We finally chose "Beyond the Horizon Lies the Stairway to Heaven". We spent many weekends decorating our gym, and on May 17, 1980, we held our prom. We listened to the music of Whirlwind and crowned Mike Harrington and Sue Gellert as king and queen.

In our senior year elections were held and the same officers prevailed. Student Council planned our first Homecoming which took place on September 27, 1980. King Scott Kraft and Queen Maureen Bailly were crowned at the football game against Chatham. A dance followed with music provided by the Nasty Dogs.

Mr. Holzhauer, our class advisor, tried to guide us through the year; and we finally enjoyed the benefits of being seniors. Our senior year was a year to remember as the end of one phase of life and the beginning of another.

Leigh Alpart

Since life is a one shot deal, give life your best shot and you will come out a big shot.

Maureen Bailly

My soul is forever free, but win my heart and you'll win me.

Lori Bergh

One has only but one life to live, live it to the fullest.

Kathleen Baldwin

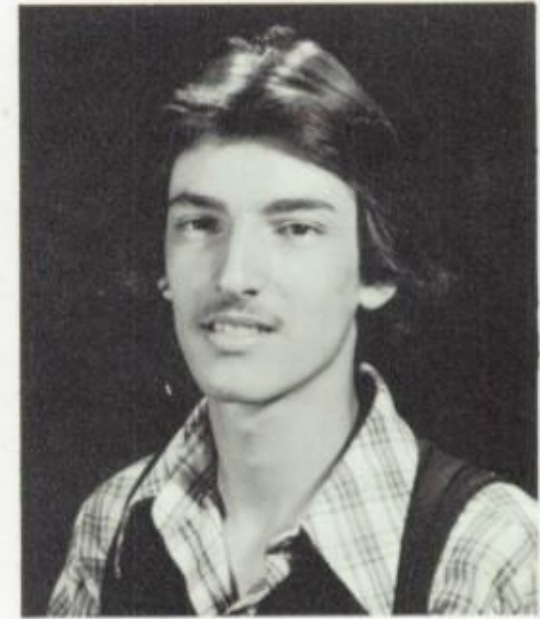

Ask and it shall be given unto you; Seek and ye shall find.

Robert Bartholomew

Herb Bergquist

Thomas Bishop

Rosemary Laressa Bledsoe

Some of us leave just to get away. Some of us leave because horizons never stop. Walk on, my friend, walk on . . .

Heathar Blevins

The beauty of the heavens is the stars; the beauty of women is their hair.

Karen Broast

I've had alot of good times in high school. I wish all of my friends good luck for it is now time to go on in life . . . take care.

Bill Bowes

The superior man does not set his mind either for anything or against anything; what is right he will follow.

Christine Marie Bontempo

Finally, I get out of this place.

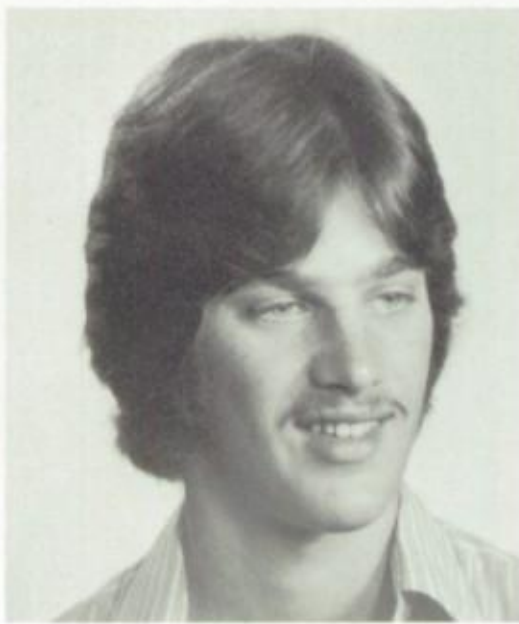

Sara Boice

Remember yesterday, dream about tomorrow, . . . but live today.

Larry Brittingham

Never put off until tomorrow, work that was due yesterday.

David Brusie

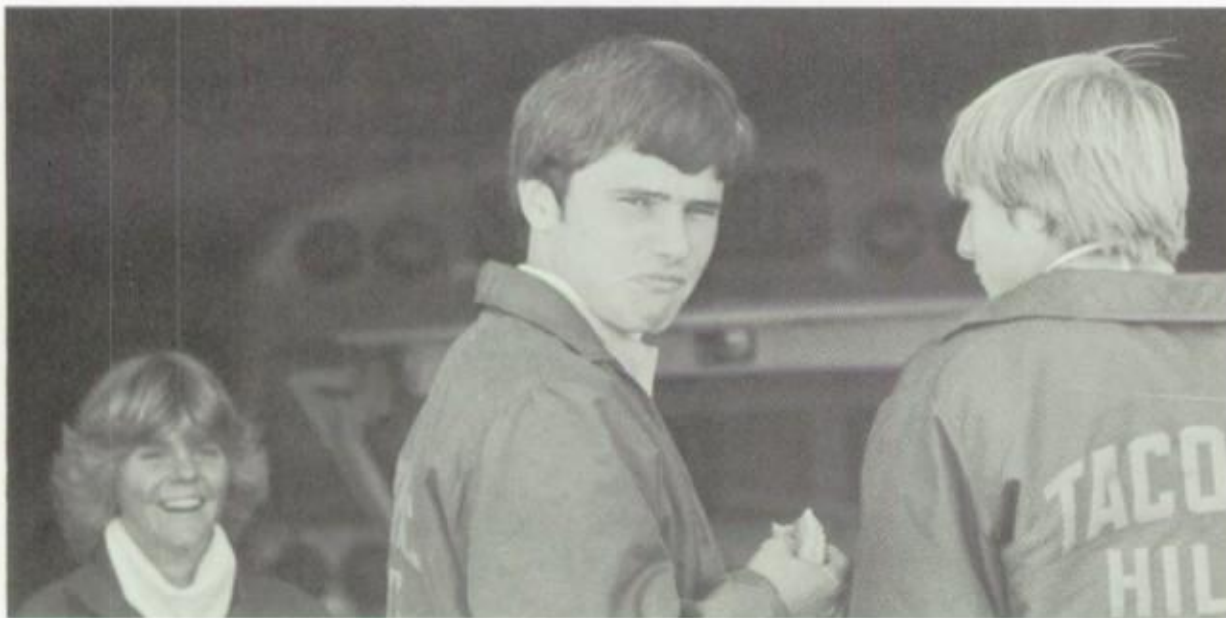

Cheri Campbell

Where love rules there is no will to power.

Paula Jo Campbell

Time is of the essence. Don't waste it on hatred . . . just love every minute of it.

Tim Cantele

If you're going to do it, do it right.

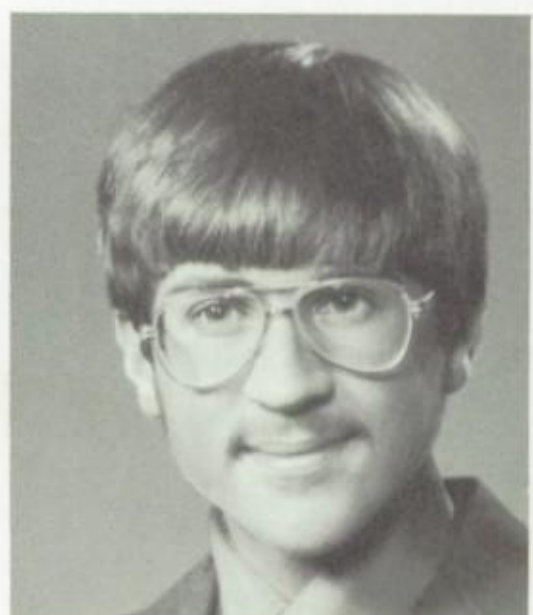

Judy Card

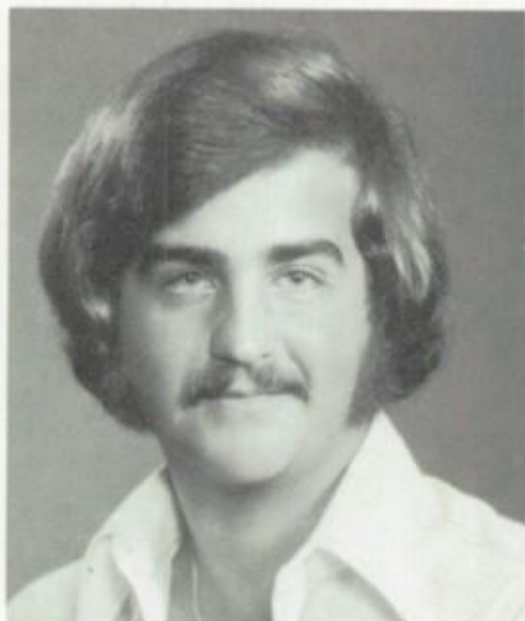

The world envies the person who can smile when it's hard to.

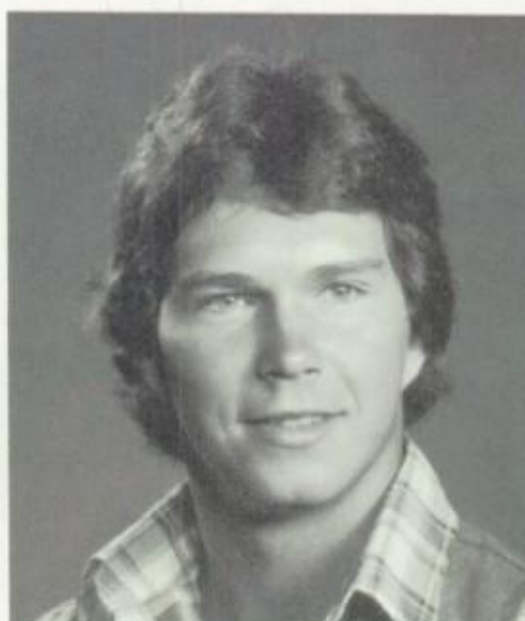

Raymond Chadwick

Charles Clapp

Daniel Cleveland

David Clough

Deborah Clough

Kevin, "You are my shining star."
Always and forever yours, Deborah.

Patricia Clough

I had a lot of fun and crazy times in school, thanks to my friends. Special thanks to my sis, Patti.

Dawn Coleman

Give for today, live for tomorrow, think toward the future, and keep the memories of the past.

Steven Coon

But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.

Kathryn Coons

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heavens.

Karen Craver

If there is righteousness in the heart
there will be beauty in the character.

Patti Dalton

I've got to be where my spirit can run free, gotta find my corner of the sky.

Kim Dean

Alone I walk the people city, where each seems happy with his own; O' friends, I ask not for your pity—I walk alone.

Paul Dellea

Bart DeRocha

Mike DeRocha

Living after midnight, rockin' till the dawn, lovin' till the mornin', and I'm gone, I'm gone!

Taffy Dunham

Kirk, everytime I see your smiling face, I have to smile myself, because,
I love you.

David G. Duerr

The heart of a fool is in his mouth but the mouth of a wise man is in his heart.

Craig Dwy

Even if you are on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there.

Bob Dykeman

I'll never forget the trip on Gilligans Island and to PA, the times with Kritter, Earl, Squirrel, & Jason.

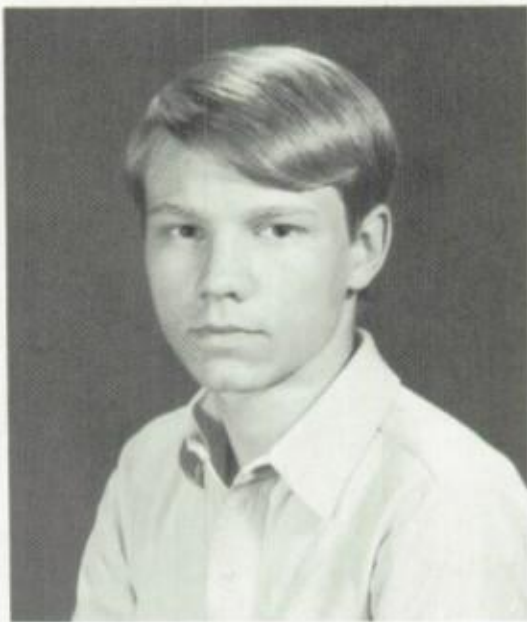

Steve Faulkner

Dean Fielder

The only things that I am going to miss are some of the teachers and my friends and the good times that we had.

Andrew Fitzhugh

Always strive for irrelevancy.

Linda Gallup

The world stops here, for this is the time and the place to settle back until a smile can reclaim your face.

David Garry

But for friendship all would be loneliness.

Susan Gellert

Noone can tell me, nobody knows
Where the wind comes from, and where the wind goes.

Ruth Ann Gibbons

It matters not how long you live, but how . . .

Susan Godejohn

Love when you can, cry when you have to Be who you must, it's a part of the plan . . .

Dolores Grove

Like a river flows surely to the sea, darling, so it goes, somethings are meant to be.

Robert Hall

Go for the gusto. O.K., fine!

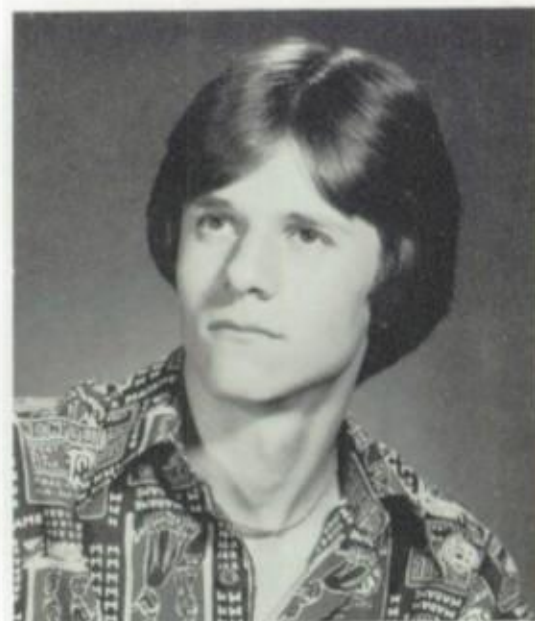

Scott Halstead

Melissa Hamm

You see things as they are, and you ask, "Why?" But I dream things that never can be and I ask, "Why not?"

Ronald Harper

Face your problems head on, and they'll work out in the end.

David Harvey

Kent Harvey

Happy are those who dream dreams, but are willing to pay the price to make them come true.

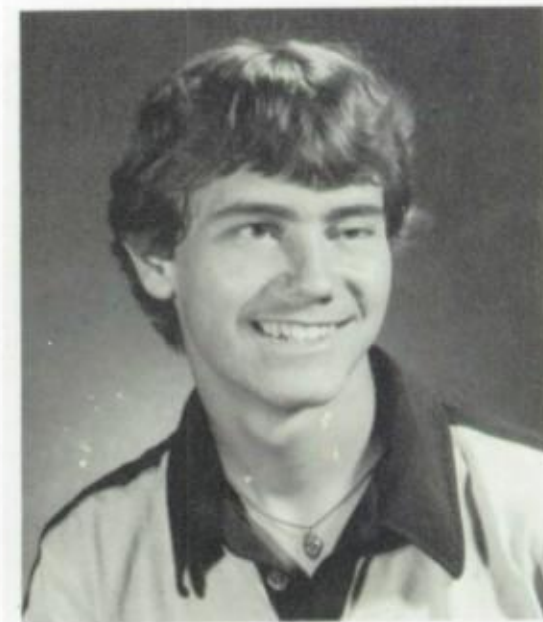

Martha Hatch

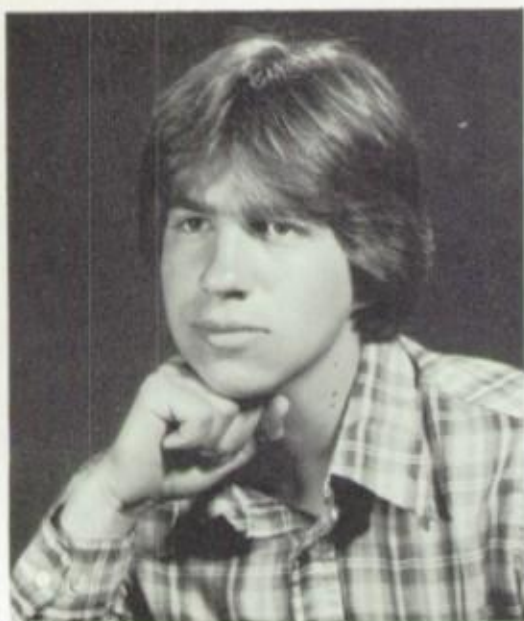

Joanne Heath

The world is full of beauty, when hearts are full of love.

Michael Harrington

If there is no wind, row.

Stuart Hess

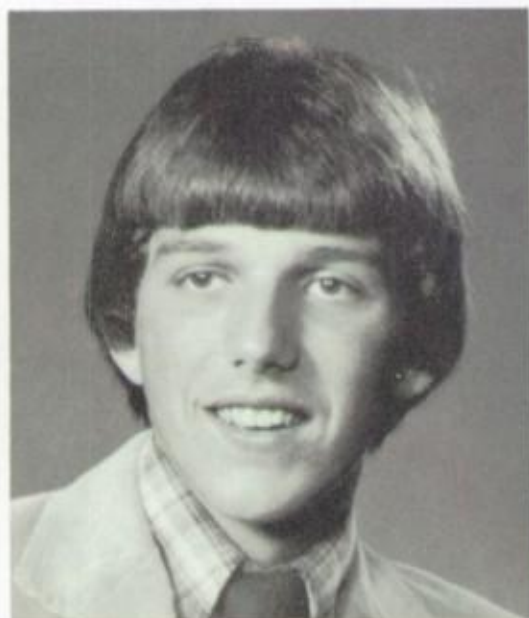

Hope Hetherington

Live for this moment; it is impossible to retrieve yesterdays; and always have bright new Hopes for tomorrow.

Robert Hodor

Chris Jensen

Whatever is worth doing is worth doing well

Lori Jensen

To my pals: Always remember my smile and the good times we had, and I will always remember, you're my friend.

David T. Kammerer

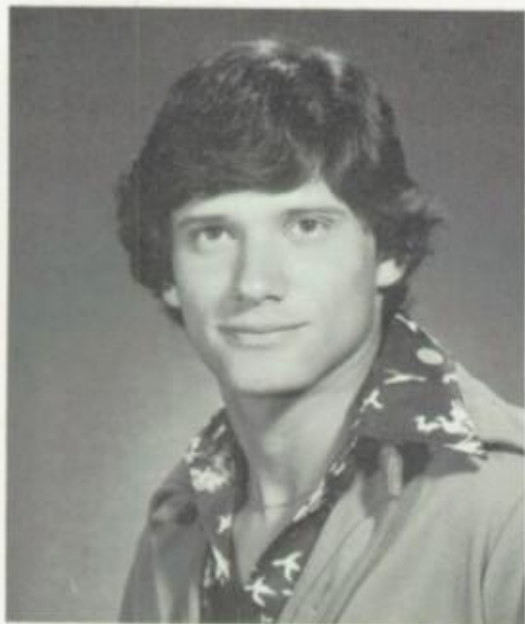

We have new feelings, you have good days.

Roxanne Kasparian

I want to do what I want to do & I want to be me.

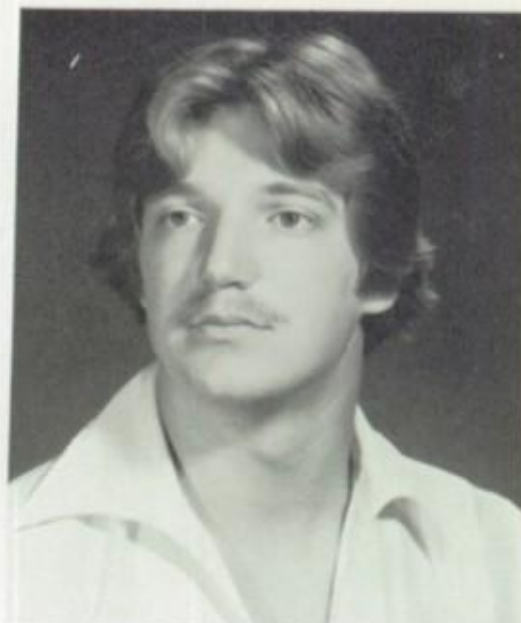

Shawn Keough

"Being is important, being important isn't important".

Scott Koetzner

The hardest part of this problem is drawing the line.

Robert Konkus

Gail Kreig

Bill Krein

The key that opens the door to happiness is only a smile.

Mark Lane

Lori Lasher

If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it.

Shelly Lauro

Now I've gained some understanding of the only world that I see. Things that I once dreamed of have become reality.

Denise Law

What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

Robert Law

Roberta Lindig

Like falling leaves the years go by, but friends and memories will never die.

William Lutz

Glenn Lyden

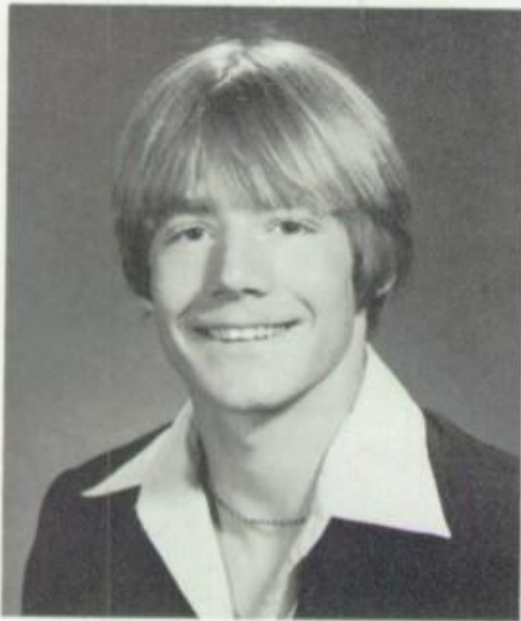

Anne Macfarlane

Character they lack, a backbone they haven't got, that's a definition of a quitter, and a quitter I am not. P.S. I'm hangin' in there!

Brian Maisenbacher

Always be yourself, anything else would be something less than you are.

Timothy Maisenbacher

Jeffrey Meltz

It's better to be thought ignorant, than to speak and remove all doubt.

Doreen Miller

The world is before you, and you need not take it or leave it as it was when you came in.

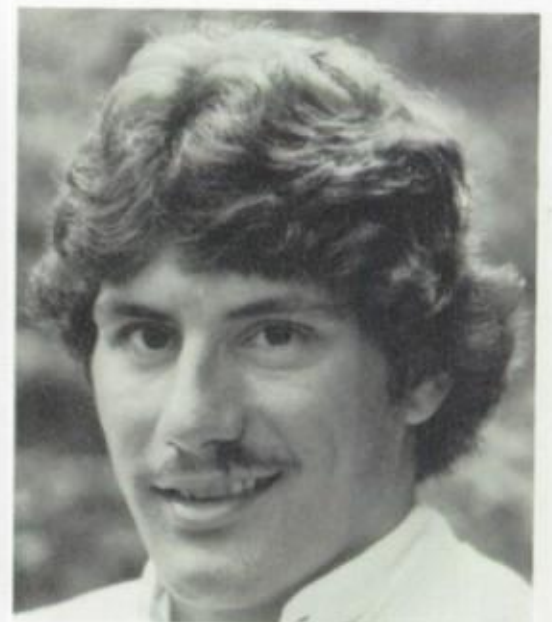

Kathleen Miller

Strangers are friends yet to meet.

Richard Montague

Always remember that to err is human, to forgive divine, to persist . . . devilish.

Ronald Montague

Bridges burned are like lessons learned. You only have to cross them once.

David Muller

Erin Mullins

Truth is the highest thing that a man can keep.

Colleen Murphy

Jean Murphy

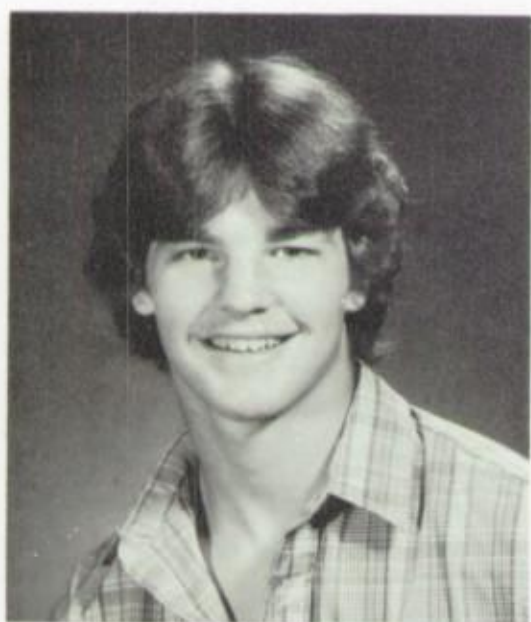

Amy Neal

Today, whatever may annoy, the word for me is Joy, just simple joy.

Thomas Near

Mark Nielsen

Play it rough, or don't play it at all.

Todd Neubauer

Kenneth Nolan

"Nolan's Second Law" That which can be forgotten, will be forgotten."

Tina Patenaude

Beauty is truth, truth beauty that is all ye know on earth and all ye need to know.

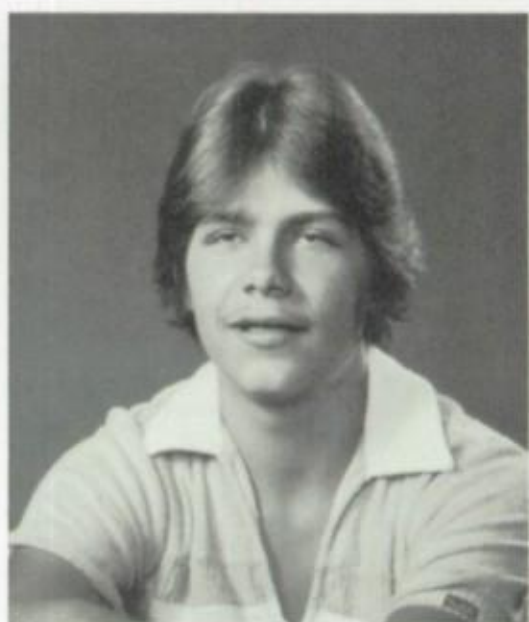

Rebecca Perry

Wine is wine, Gin is gin, Braces are beautiful, So I got 'em again!

Dean Pells

I sold my soul for rock & roll!

Kevin Pfeiffer

Deborah, whenever I see your smiling face, I have to smile myself, because I love you. Love Kevin.

Christopher Preusser

Cynthia Pulver

To have a friend you must be one.

Karen Pyle

Just remember in the winter far beneath the bitter snow, lies the seed that with the sun's love in the spring becomes the rose.

Mary MacDougall

Live for today, strive for your own happiness, and always be content with the peace love brings.

Jon Rocker

Kathleen Mary Roney

I keep holding on . . . to yesterday.

Theresa Rotter

There are two things noone can ever take away from you - memories of the past and dreams of the future.

Karyl-Lynn Scasny

But the gate to life is narrow and the way that leads to it is hard and there are few people who find it.

Debbie Scheitinger

Happy memories made today become treasures for all our tomorrows.

Laurie Schermerhorn

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I can't change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Friedrich Schnackenberg

There's a race of men that don't fit in, a race that can't stay still. So they break the hearts of kith and kin, and they roam the world at will.

Jan Sheldon

Hold fast to dreams, for if dreams die, Life is like a broken-winged bird that cannot fly.

Robert Shook

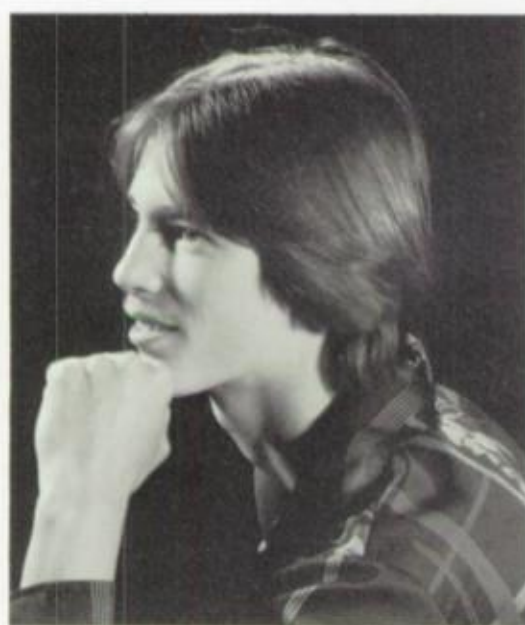

Gary Shook

Timothy Shook

Scott Sherman

James Sherwood

Norman Sigler

Phil Simmons

Scott Skelley

To those of us who party high, rock & roll will never die!

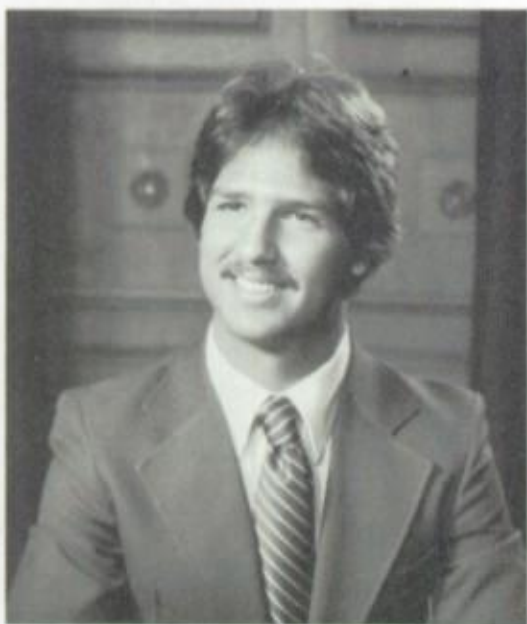

Karen Smith

The love in your heart wasn't put there to stay, love isn't love 'till you give it away.

Patti Snow

"THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES" For all my friends at TH's especially my best, Patti Clough I'll cherish our friendships.

William Snyder

Life is short and uncertain, so never pass up a chance to enjoy it or make it more enjoyable for someone else.

Thomas Sticker

Glen Surdam

Christina Tate

Helen Testa

For long you'll live, and high you'll fly. Smiles you'll give, and tears you'll cry. All you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be.

Cynthia Tipple

Beauty changes with the passing seasons, except in the heart, where true beauty remains.

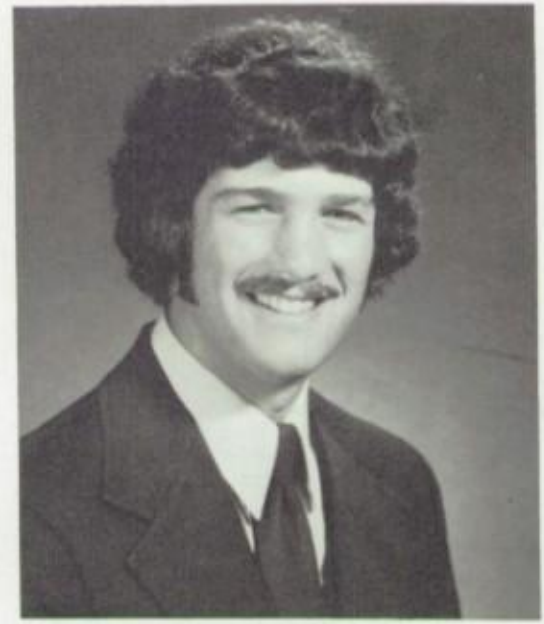

James Tipple

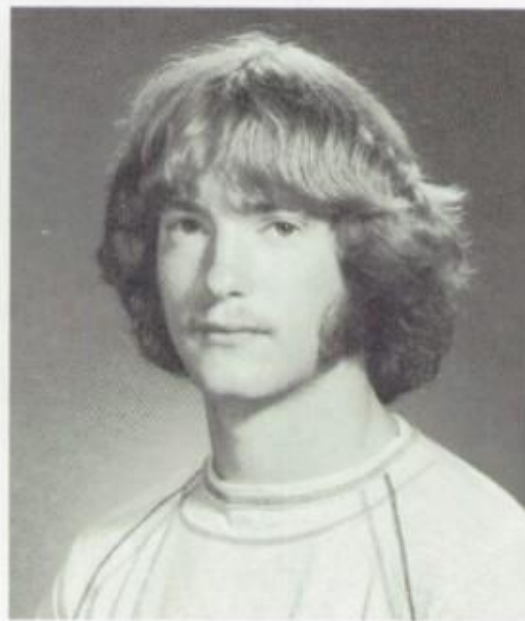

You can't beat the system, but nobody says you can't try.

Anthony Torchia

Don VanTassel

Rodney VanTassel

Susan VanTassel

True friendship is a plant of slow growth.

Trudy Vogelgesang

Love's a present you can give, every single day you live!

Deborah Wassenhove

Tomorrow's treasures are bestowed upon only those who merit today's precious gifts.

Doug Wasner

"The manner of giving is worth more than the gift."

Heidi Weigelt

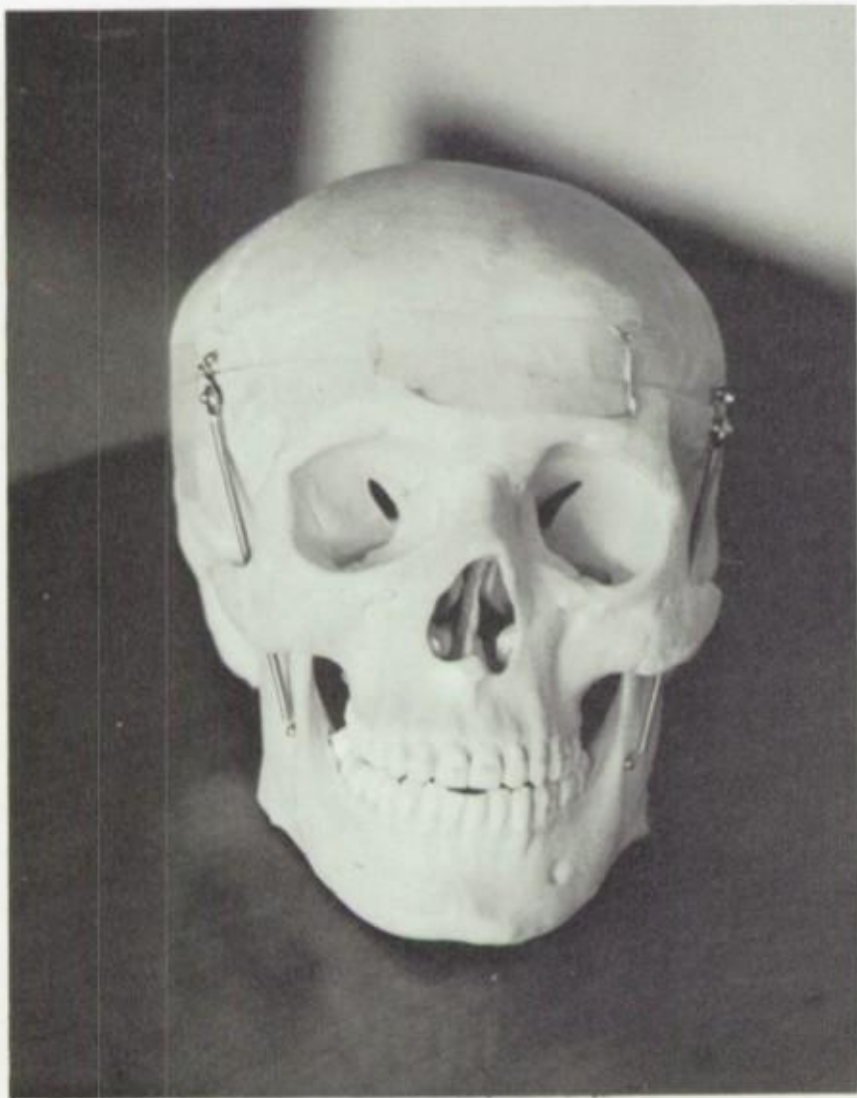

Nothing is really work unless you would rather be doing something else.

Rhonda Wheeler

For Jim: There is a special place for you reserved inside me. A part of us that always was and will always be.

IN MEMORY OF —

Life goes through many changes
Like the leaf upon a tree
Many of these things are unexpected
And are never meant to be.

The changing colors
As we pass through the seasons
All mean something different
And all have special reasons.

So keep the wind at your back
And your chin up high
For when the wind blows the leaf
It flies straight to the sky.

Special Events

HOMECOMING

Our first annual Homecoming was held during the week of Sept. 22-27. We began these festive activities with Hat Day, Daisy Day, '50's Day, Football Day, Orange and White Day and ended with the defeat of the football team to Chatham. The halftime coronation of Maureen Bailly and Scott Kraft as King and Queen upgraded our spirits despite of the loss of the game. Saturday night the King and Queen reigned over a dance in the school gymnasium to the music of the Nasty Dogs.

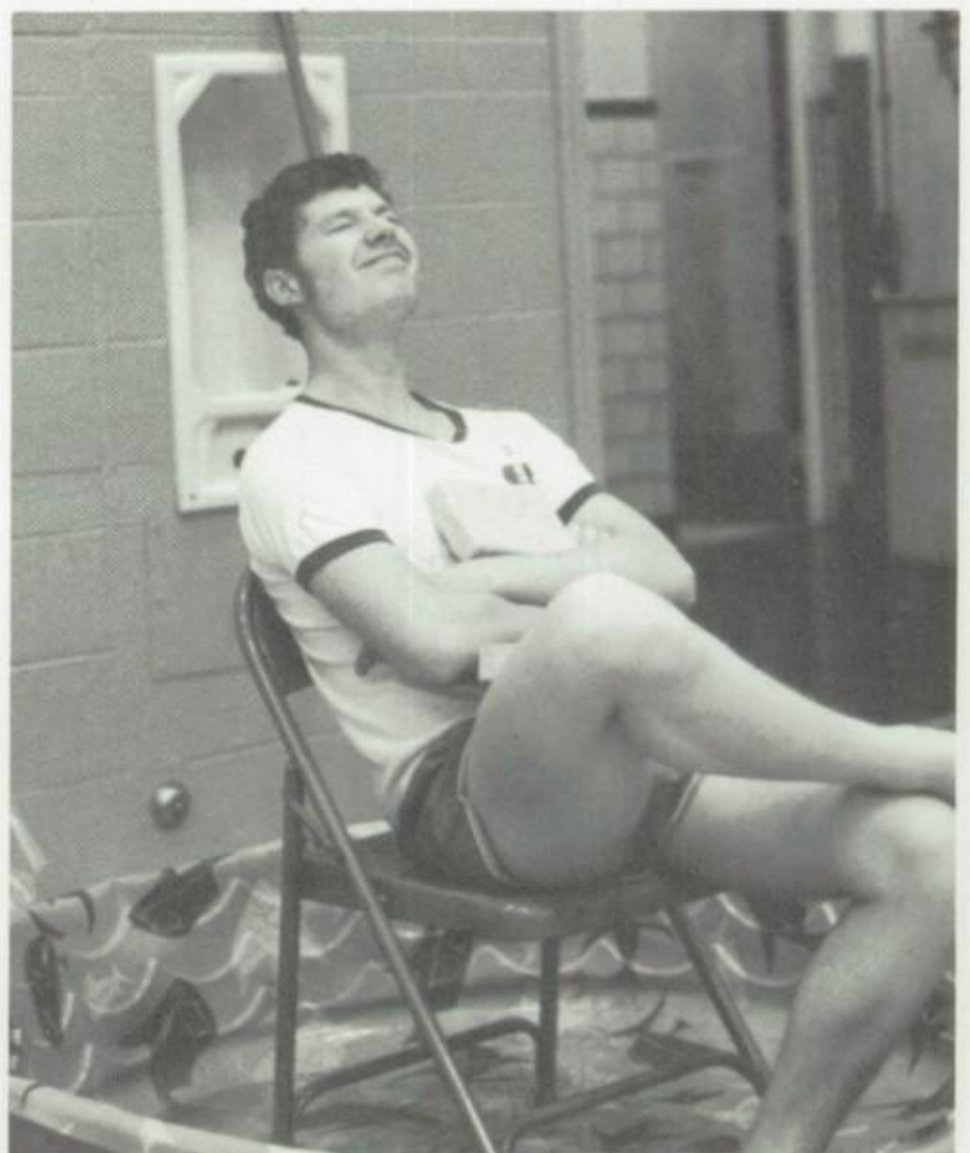

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

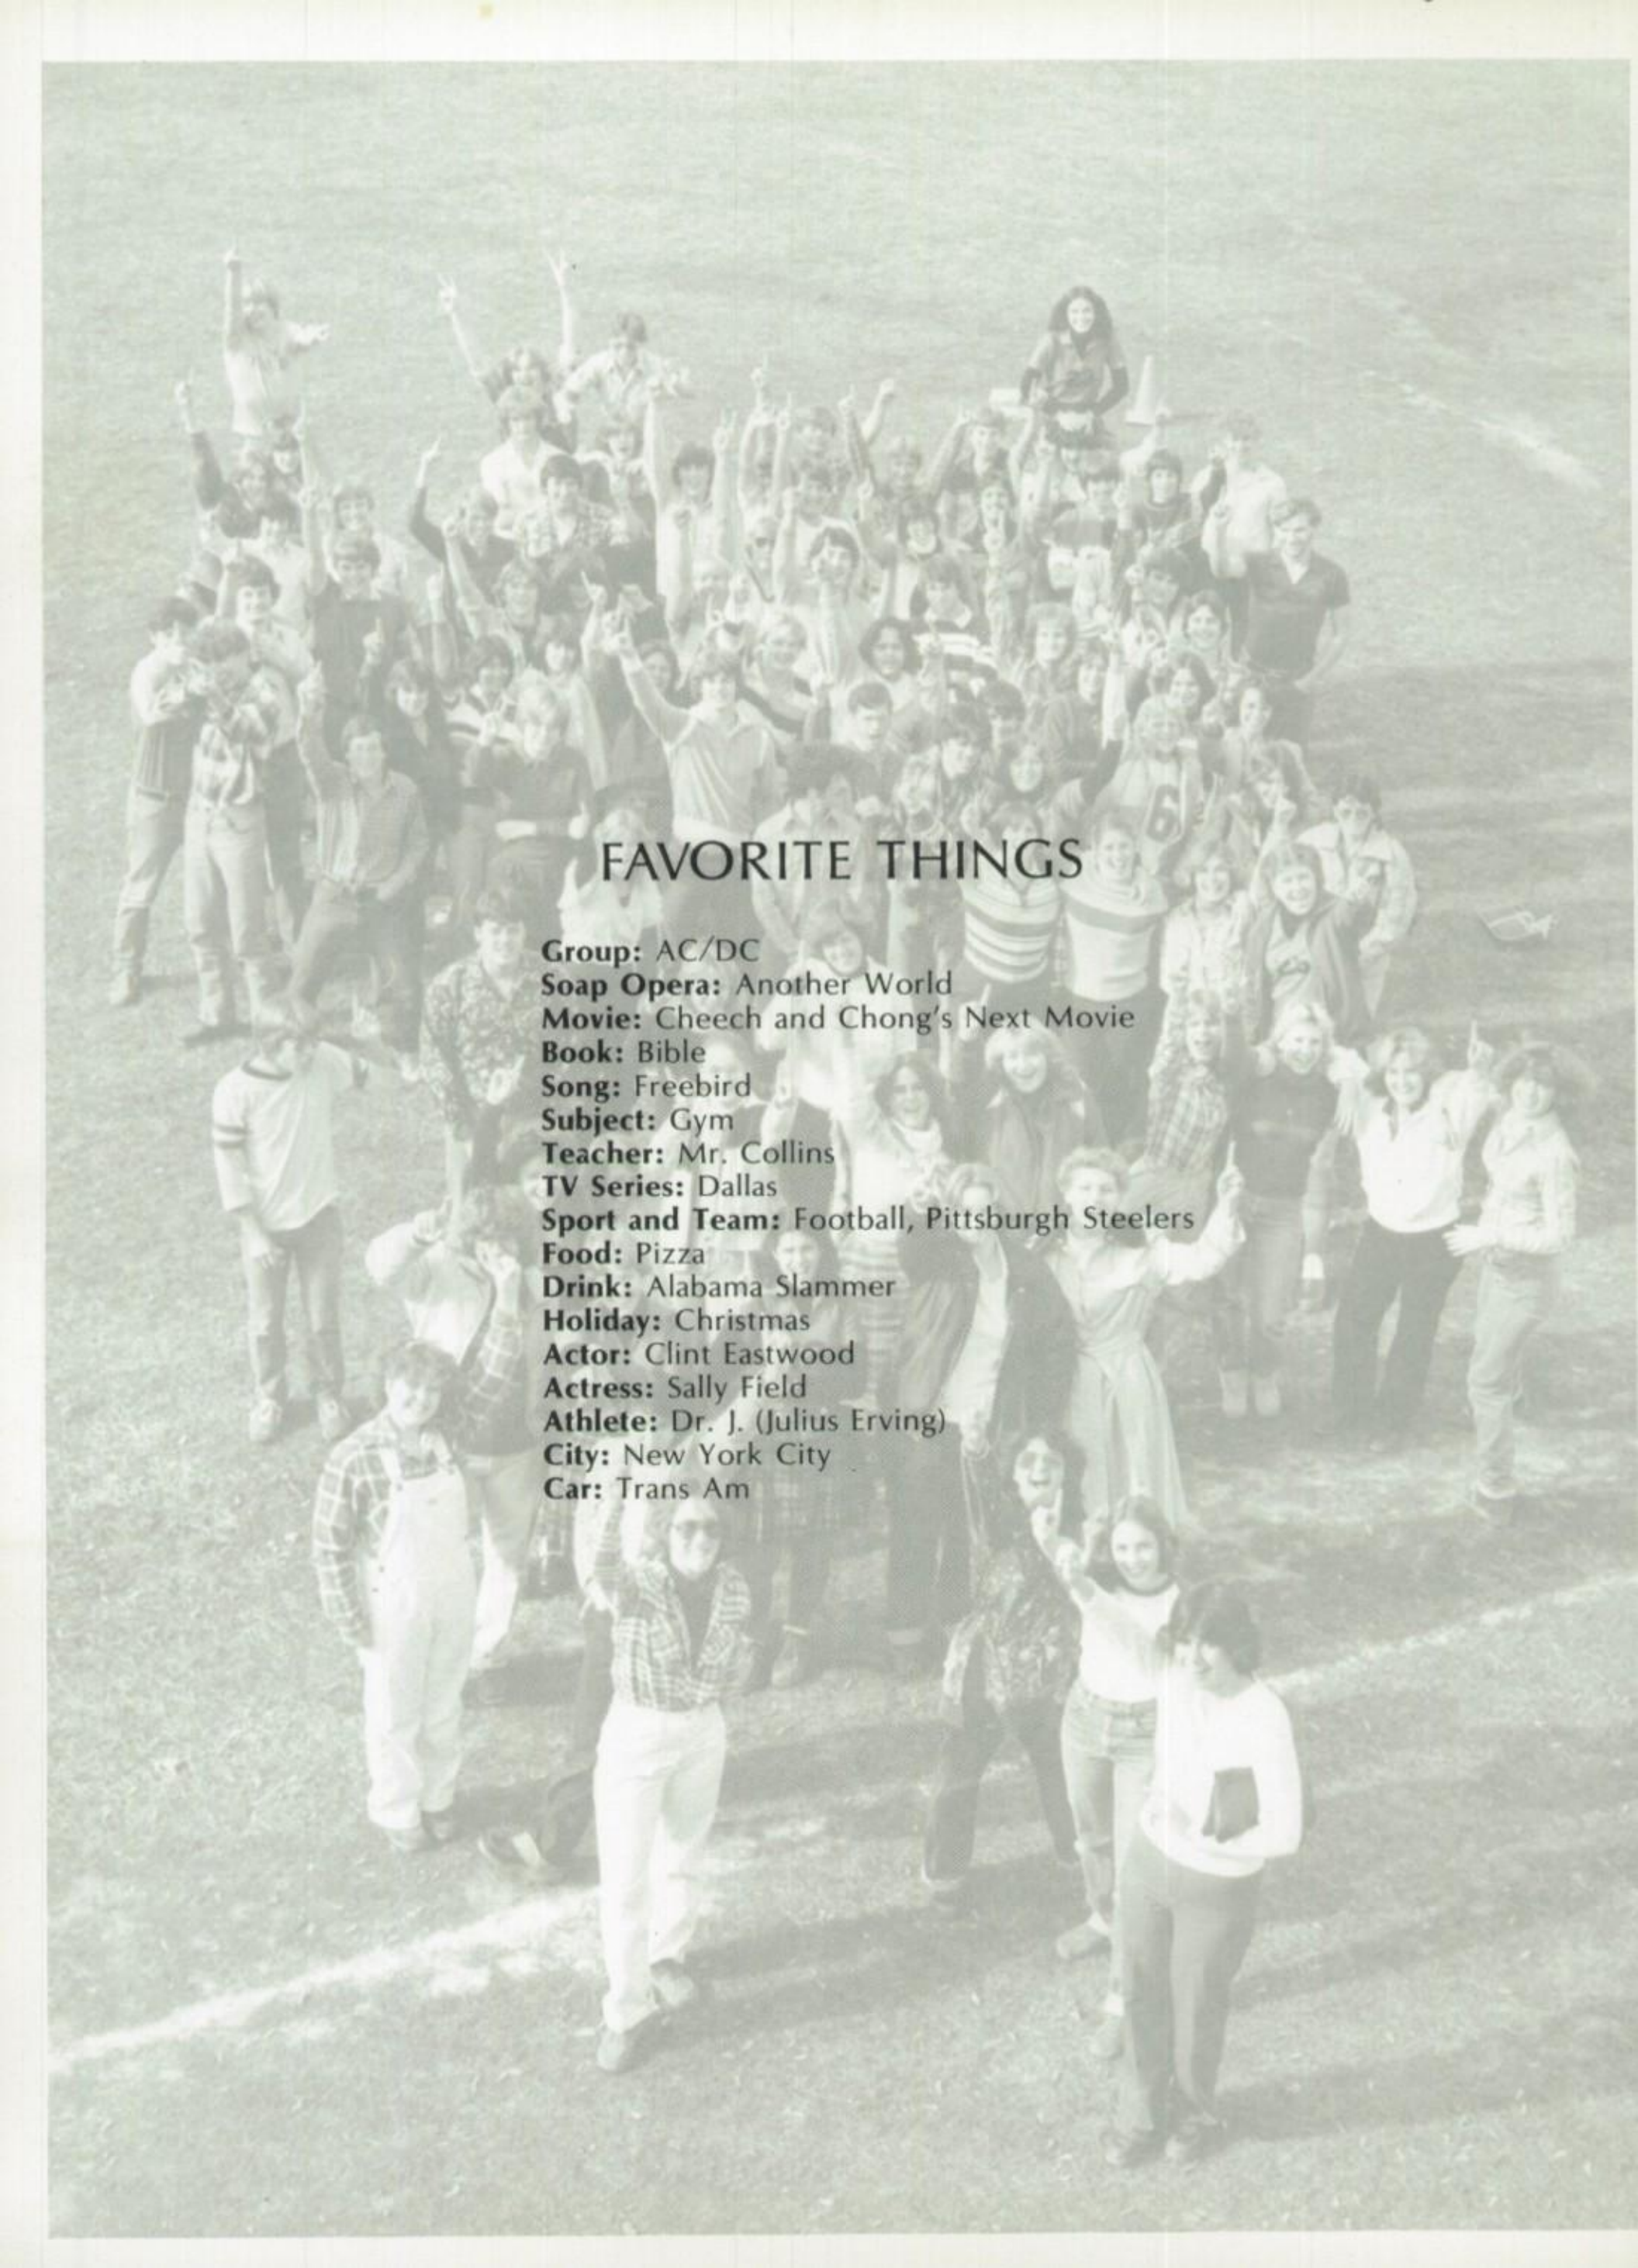

K. C. and S. K. were in love in Calc. Class
What a "Bang" last year's Christmas assembly was
There was a male cheerleader
The first day of high school we had to learn the school song
We were freshmen, and everyone got away with everything
Mr. C. gave us GI=GO
When Leigh rode his motorcycle to Paula's
The girls' field hockey team was outscoring the football team
K. C. fell off her heels at the ring banquet
When L. S. ended up with two dates for the prom and K. R. had none
Varsity Field Hockey Team won first place in sectionals
We had a bomb scare
Mr. Crandall introduced Moby Worm
D. K. took apart K. C.'s calculator
We went to the Adirondacks and Mr. Winslow rode down the waterfall
We could skip classes and talk our way out of it
School started serving tacos
We had a water day
Joe's Bar got raided
Mr. Crandall wasn't here
When school was a big soap opera
6-pack crew had annual alcoholics convention
The clean-up crew for the prom discovered things while cleaning up
We—the juniors—won Senior Field Day
Bobby Dyke's keg disappeared at his prom party
We washed the cars with Tide
The Varsity Football team started winning
Mr. Garrett kicked his clip board when the soccer team did something right
P. S. and P. C. got caught skipping a final
C.T.'s party got raided by her own sister
J. R. scored a basket for the other team
You could find a seat during 5th period lunch
Mr. Q. fell off his chair
Mr. Bohley was principal
R. G. and T. V. had different hair styles
Mr. Clarke wore clogs
H. B. slid into home plate on field day and showed freshman
B. O. who was boss.

POW WOW

The Pow Wow is an event sponsored by the faculty to raise money for student scholarships. Many activities were held that night, including a cabaret, a haunted house, and "Soak a Senior". The entire community participated in this event.

HALLOWEEN

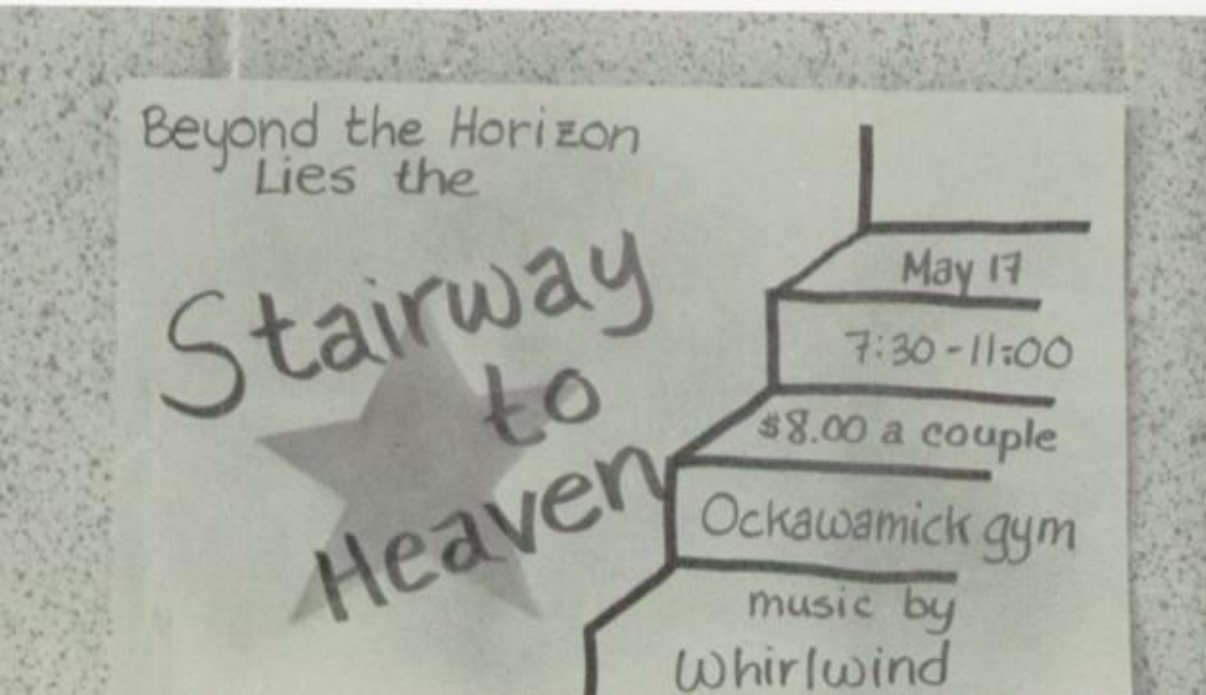

90

1980 PROM

Our Junior Prom was held on May 17, 1980. Our theme was "Beyond the Horizon lies the Stairway to Heaven", and Whirlwind performed for us. Mike Harrington and Sue Gellert were crowned prom King and Queen.

FIELD DAY

On May 23 last year, the second annual class competition, Senior Field Day, took place. Many of the events such as the stretcher race, softball, pie-eating, speed away, handicap basketball and others were won by the Juniors which led the class of '81 on to overall victory. Sophomores took second place. Seniors followed, and the Freshmen clinched a close fourth place. In spite of the extremely hot and humid weather conditions, Senior Field Day was a success and is rapidly becoming a school tradition.

AWARDS

Athletes receiving special honors

Laurie Schermerhorn was the high seller in our magazine drive.
